FISHING RULES

1. That Members shall fish in accordance to Angling Trust Rules and Club rules shown hereafter. A copy of the latest Angling Trust Rules and Club Rule Book should be available at all competitions, provided by the club, and any disputes, alleged breaking of the rules or where the rules are silent, should where possible be sorted out at the time of the occurrence, not necessarily at the end of the competition. In any event the matter should be brought to the notice of an Officer of the Club (including committee members) before the end of the weigh-in at the latest. As long as there are 3 or more Officers of the Club including committee members present to form a fishing subcommittee then a ruling may be given. If the rules are considered by a majority vote to have been broken then the catch or part catch may be disallowed, if the matter is seen to have altered the result of the competition. The matter must be reported to the full committee at the next committee meeting where any decision may be endorsed or otherwise as the case may be. If the member wishes he/she may appeal in writing and can be heard by the committee, if there are insufficient officers or committee members present then the member can make a complaint in writing to the full committee, in time for the next committee meeting, otherwise the matter will be considered out of time.

2.1. On club competitions only Juniors may have assistance in casting only.

2.2. Ladies to cast for themselves except for 1st years fishing or when returning to angling after a long rest when assistance with casting only will be allowed.
